3 INFORMATION TO THE REPORTED PERSON AND RECTIFICATION

If you are subject to a report submitted through the Whistleblower Arrangement, you will be notified as soon as possible after an initial investigation has taken place and all relevant evidence is secured. In this connection, you will receive information about:

- The identity of the person(s) who is/are responsible for the investigation of the report
- A description of the contents of the report

As mentioned below in the section about your general rights, you have a right of access to the report that was submitted about you. However, your right to access to the report might be limited in accordance with the Danish Whistleblower Act.

You also have the right to request rectification of the information in the report if you believe this to be false, misleading, or incomplete. If your request in this respect cannot be met, the information will be supplemented with your comments.

4 CONSEQUENCES OF THE PROCESSING

Reports and investigation of reports to the Whistleblower Arrangement may have significant consequences for the person who is reported, as reports concern violations or suspected violations of the law, as further outlined in the separate guidelines for the Arrangement.

Likewise, a report to the Whistleblower Arrangement may have significant consequences for the person who has submitted the report in case of a deliberately false report. Such cases may have criminal consequences.

5 TRANSFERS TO COUNTRIES OUTSIDE THE EU/EEA

We transfer personal data to the following types of recipients, located in countries outside the EU/EEA:

Transfers of personal data to a third country or an international organisation
Category of recipient: Microsoft, incl. Microsoft's sub-processors in various countries Country: USA
Category of recipient: Placement Agents, accountants, legal advisors, other relevant advisors and cooperating partners Country: Countries where CISC or funds that CISC provides services to are active, including USA, Canada, Japan, South Korea, Australia, New Zealand, Israel, Taiwan, Chile, Mexico, Singapore, India, Thailand, Brazil, the Philippines and Vietnam.
Category of recipient: IT Service Providers, providers of online communication, file storage platforms Country: Countries where CISC or funds that CISC provides services to are active, including USA, Canada, Japan, South Korea, Australia, New Zealand, Israel, Taiwan, Chile, Mexico, Singapore, India, Thailand, Brazil, the Philippines, and Vietnam.

We may transfer your personal data to countries outside EU/EEA, where the European Commission has decided that the country offers an adequate level of data protection, pursuant to article 45 of the GDPR ("Adequacy Decision")

When transferring your personal data to insecure third countries outside the EU/EEA without an adequacy decision, the legal basis for transferring is the European Commission's Standard Contractual Clauses in order to ensure an adequate level of protection for the personal data equivalent to the level ensured in the EU.

We note that the US and other third countries usually do not ensure a level of protection essentially equivalent to that ensured within the EU/EEA. Therefore, you must be aware that the third countries may not provide for effective legal remedies to exercise your rights and may allow unjustifiable access to personal data by public authorities.

6 YOUR GENERAL RIGHTS

You have the following rights:

- You have the right to request access to and rectification or deletion of your personal data.
- You also have the right to object to the processing of your personal data and have the processing of your personal data restricted.
- You have the right to receive the personal information provided by yourself in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format (data portability).
- You may always lodge a complaint with a data protection supervisory authority, e.g. The Danish Data Protection Agency.

There may be conditions or limitations on these rights, e.g., you may not be entitled to deletion of your personal data in a specific case – this depends on the specific circumstances of the processing activities.
